

Museums Matter

OUR ECONOMIC IMPACT:

$195
MILLION

In Maine, museums have a significant financial impact on the economy. Cultural tourism is a fast-growing industry.¹

95%

APPROVAL RATING

Support for museums is robust regardless of political persuasion. Americans approve of lawmakers who act to support museums.¹

850 MILLION U.S. VISITS PER YEAR

Annual museum visits outpace attendance for all major league sporting events and theme parks combined.¹

MUSEUM VISITORS SPEND MORE

76% of all leisure travelers visit cultural or heritage sites like museums, and these travelers spend 60% more than average.¹

Maine Archives & Museums (MAM) is the only professional association representing museums, archives, historical societies, and other collecting institutions in the State of Maine.

MAINE MUSEUMS:

$139M
IN INCOME

3,405
JOBS

1:1 JOBS IN THE ECONOMY

Each year, thousands are employed by museums. For every direct job at a museum, an additional job is supported elsewhere in the economy. This is higher than many other sectors.¹

$46.5M

TAX REVENUE

Museums return more than $5 in tax revenues for every $1 they receive in funding from all levels of government.¹

$110M+

EXPENDITURES

Arts, Cultural and Humanities organizations, many of which are museums, spend millions annually in the economy.²

MAM SUPPORTS MUSEUMS

MAM is committed in its support of Maine's collecting institutions and their impact as economic enterprises and a driving force behind tourism in the state.

We reach beyond our members to enhance and support all collecting institutions in Maine and their contributions to local, state, and national economies.
